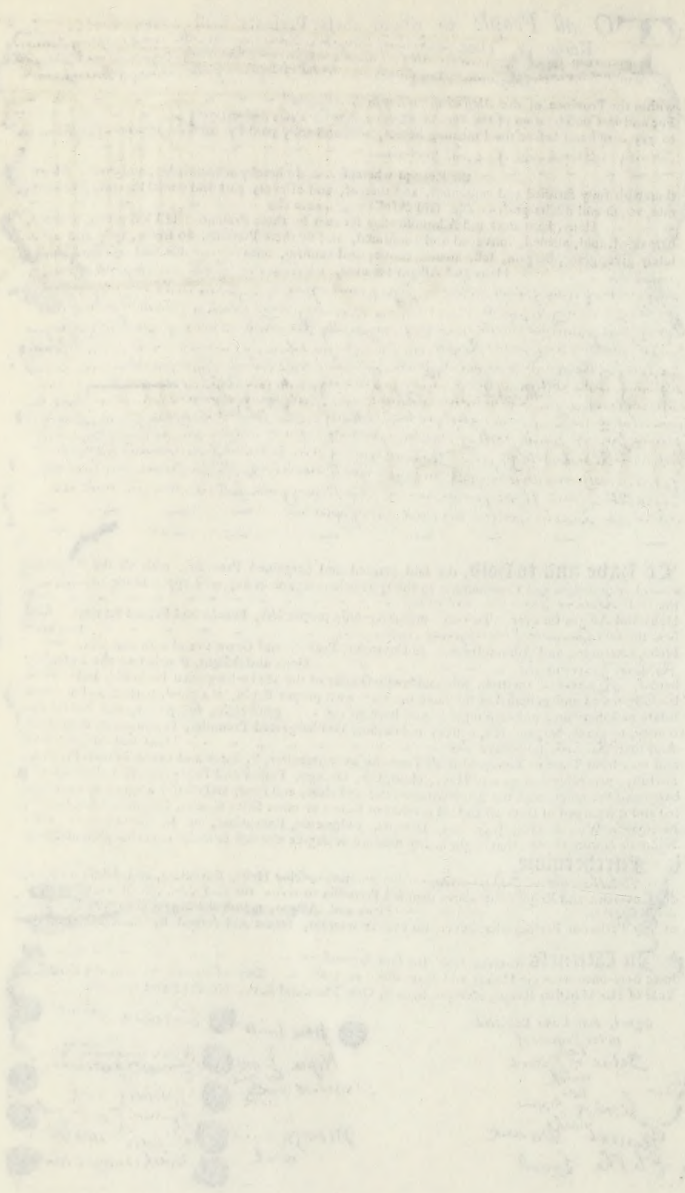
DEED FROM DAUGHTERS OF RICHARD SPARROW



THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. XI JANUARY, 1909 No. 1

RICHARD AND MERCY SPARROW'S CHILDREN AND THEIR MARRIAGES

By George Ernest Bowman

The illustration facing this page is a reproduction of an ancient deed presented to this Society by Mr. Stanley W. Smith. This deed has never been put on record, and its preservation in such excellent condition is very fortunate, as it proves that six of the seven daughters of Richard and Mercy (Cob) Sparrow of Eastham were married before 4 June, 1740, and gives us the names of their husbands. An abstract of this deed will be found at the end of this article.

Richard Sparrow and Mercy Cob were married at Eastham, 4 February, 1701/2. Richard was a son of Capt. Jonathan Sparrow by his second wife, Hannah (Prence) Mayo, therefore a grandson of Gov. Thomas Prence by his first wife, Patience[2] Brewster (Elder William[1]). Mercy Cob was a daughter of James and Sarah (Lewis) Cob of Barnstable. James Cob died about 1695, and his widow Sarah became the third wife of Capt. Jonathan Sparrow in 1698.

Richard and Mercy Sparrow had two sons and seven daughters, all born at Eastham. The record of the marriage and of the births of eight of the children, Richard, Rebecca, Mercy, Sarah, Hannah, Elizabeth, Mary and Priscilla, were printed in our seventh volume. The birth of the ninth child and the death of the father are recorded together in the Eastham Records [Births, etc., 1701–1781, page 8] as follows:

"Jonathan Sparrow the Son of Richard and Mercy Sparrow was Born at Eastham on the 17th day of December annodomini 1724

"Richard Sparrow Senr dyed on the thirteenth day of april annodomini 1728"

As this ninth child, Jonathan, is not mentioned in his

RICHARD AND MERCY SPARROW'S CHILDREN AND THEIR MARRIAGES

By Clarence Ramsey Bowman

The illustration facing this page is a reproduction of an ancient deed presented to this Society by Mr. Stanley W. Smith. This deed has never been put on record, and its preservation in such excellent condition is very fortunate, as it proves that six of the seven daughters of Richard and Mercy (Cob) Sparrow of Eastham were married before 4 June, 1740, and gives us the names of their husbands. An abstract of this deed will be found at the end of this article.

Richard Sparrow and Mercy Cob were married at Eastham, 4 February, 1701/2. Richard was a son of Capt. Jonathan Sparrow by his second wife, Hannah (Prence) Mayo, therefore a grandson of Gov. Thomas Prence by his first wife, Patience Brewster (Elder William). Mercy Cob was a daughter of James and Sarah (Lewis) Cob of Barnstable. James Cob died about 1695, and his widow Sarah became the third wife of Capt. Jonathan Sparrow in 1698.

Richard and Mercy Sparrow had two sons and seven daughters, all born at Eastham. The record of the marriage and of the births of eight of the children, Richard, Rebecca, Mercy, Sarah, Hannah, Elizabeth, Mary and Priscilla, were printed in our seventh volume. The birth of the ninth child and the death of the father are recorded together in the Eastham Records (Births, etc., 1701–1878, page 8) as follows:

"Jonathan Sparrow the Son of Richard and Mercy Sparrow was Born at Eastham on the 17th day of December anno Domini 1724

"Richard Sparrow Senr dyed on the thirteenth day of April anno Domini 1728"

As this ninth child, Jonathan, is not mentioned in his father's will, dated 23 February, 1727/8, it is evident that he lived but a short time. Of the eight children mentioned in the will, an abstract of which is here given, the son Richard and six of the daughters were married at Eastham, as follows:*

"Richard Sparrow Jun^{r}" and Hannah Shaw, 26 September, 1723.

Richard Mayo and Rebecca Sparrow, 26 December, 1728.

Zebulon Young and Mercy Sparrow, 22 February, 1725/6.

Edmund Freeman and Sarah Sparrow, 25 September, 1729.

"Josiah Cook jun^{r}" and Hannah Sparrow, 11 February, 1730/1.

Elisha Doane and Elizabeth Sparrow, 14 March, 1733/4.

Isaac Smith and Mary Sparrow, 9 March, 1737/8.

This "Richard Sparrow Jun^{r}" was positively identified as the son of Richard and Mercy by means of the town, church and cemetery records. The will of Richard, senior, mentions his "Daughter Mercy Young," and Zebulon Young signed the deed as a grantor. The other five daughters and their husbands signed the deed as grantors.

The seventh daughter, Priscilla, did not join in the deed to her brother, and I have not yet been able to determine the disposal of her seventh part. The will of her father provided that the land should be "Equallily Divided Among them y^{t} shall be surviveing when I shall Decease," therefore this sale of six sevenths proves that Priscilla survived her father and became the owner of the other seventh part.

The intention of marriage of David Snow and Priscilla Sparrow, "boath of Eastham," was entered 10 January, 1746/7, and they, again called "both of Eastham," were married 5 March, 1747.† These two records may refer to Priscilla, the daughter of Richard and Mercy Sparrow, but I have not found any evidence to prove that it was Richard's daughter who became the wife of David Snow. There were other Sparrow families in Eastham at this time, and David Snow's wife may have belonged to one of them.

The latter name was also crossed out and "Isreal Doane" interlined. These changes appear to have been made in the same hand and ink.

[4 : 431] On 22 May, 1728, "Richard Sparrow of Eastham . . . . yeoman" was appointed guardian of "Mary Sparrow Daughter to Richard Sparrow Late of Eastham Deceased" The name of the guardian was first entered as "M^rs^ Mercy Sparrow . . . . RECORDS OF THE FIRST CHURCH IN MARSHFIELD, MASS.

Transcribed from the Original Records

By George Ernest Bowman

The oldest known records of the First Church in Marshfield, Mass., are found in a small note book, in which Rev. Edward Tompson made the first entry in 1696. Mr. Tompson's statement, that he could not recover the names of the female members of the church, indicates that if any earlier records had been made they had been lost. Mr. Tompson's last entry was the record of an admission to membership, on 4 February, 1704/5, the next entry being the record of his death, on 16 March, 1704/5.

RECORDS OF THE FIRST CHURCH OF SCITUATE, MASS.

In this issue we give all the marriages recorded by Rev. Nathaniel Pitcher. We have not printed the dates in vertical columns, as originally written, but have followed the method adopted for printing his baptisms. In each date the first number is the day of the month.

The first leaf of this marriage record is badly worn, but a careful study of the chronological sequence of the marriages, and a comparison with the original town records, has made it possible to complete each record with certainty. All portions of entries not now on the original church record have been enclosed in brackets.

RIDER-RYDER NOTES

By the Editor

The numerous errors which have been printed about Samuel[1] Rider of Yarmouth, and his descendants, have made it necessary to devote a great deal of time to correcting these mistakes, by means of the original records. It is probable that few families have been more strangely distorted. Each writer seems to have added some error to those of his predecessors, until the climax is reached in "The Pioneers of Massachusetts," * which makes five errors in the five sentences devoted to Samuel[1] Rider, and on another page prints "Zephaniah" Rider instead of "Zachariah."

In the following notes every reference is to the original record, which has been, in each case, personally re-examined by the Editor since he noticed the errors referred to.

Samuel[1] Rider's name does not appear either as a freeman or as a proprietor of Yarmouth under date of 7 January, 1638/9, as stated in the "Pioneers." On that date his name appears only in a list "of those that are pposed to take up their freedome at Yarmouth" †

There is no record that Samuel[1] Rider held the rank of captain, as stated in the "Pioneers." He held the rank of sergeant in April, 1653; was appointed lieutenant of the Yarmouth company in June, 1653; was reduced to the ranks 6 March, 1654/5; and was re-appointed lieutenant 1 June, 1658. On the margin, opposite the record of his reduction, is a note stating that he was re-instated at the Court held 5 June, 1655. There is no record of any Court being held on that date, and the wording of the record of 1 June, 1658, is conclusive evidence that he had not been re-instated previously. It seems to be clear, therefore, that the date in this marginal note is an error. From 1658 until 1670 there appears no record of the appointment of any other lieutenant. In 1670, John Marchant, Sr., was promoted to that rank. In March, 1683/4, land of "Leift Ryder Deceased" is mentioned.* As the probate records show, Samuel[1] Ryder died between 20 November, and 9 December, 1679.

* Boston, 1900. † Plymouth Colony Records, Court Orders, i: 183.

In another article, in a later issue, we shall show that it was Samuel[2] Rider, not his father, Samuel[1], as stated in the "Pioneers," who married Sarah Bartlett and had a son Samuel born in 1657. [See "Notes" on page 63 of this issue.]

The will of Samuel[1] Rider makes a bequest to his son John[2] Rider, whose name is omitted from the list of legatees given in the "Pioneers."

The "Pioneers" also errs in stating that Edward[1] Sturgis married, second, "Mary, widow of Zephaniah Rider of Yarmouth," giving as authority for the statement the Barnstable County Probate Records, II : 14. The ante-nuptial agreement there recorded is beautifully written and perfectly distinct, leaving no opportunity for any doubt as to the reading. The name of Mary's first husband reads "Zechariah Rider." Especial emphasis is given to this correction, because no "Zephaniah" Rider has been found on the early records.

In this first installment of Rider-Ryder Notes we give abstracts, made by the Editor from the original records, of the wills of Samuel[1] Rider and his sons Zachariah[2] (whose widow married Edward[1] Sturgis) and John[2]; the settlement of the estate of Samuel[3] (John[2], Samuel[1]); four depositions relating to the estate of Samuel[1]; and the record of the death, at Plymouth, of Anne the widow of Samuel[1].

NOTES

SAMUEL[2] RIDER'S TWO WIVES. The Editor regrets to announce that he has proved that Samuel[2] Rider (Samuel[1]) of Plymouth, who married in 1656 Sarah Bartlett[3] (Mary[2] Warren, Richard[1]), and the Samuel Rider who married Lydia Tilden in 1680 were not father and son. They were one person. It will, therefore, be necessary to cancel all claims of Mayflower descent through Samuel[2] Rider and his wife Lydia Tilden, as neither had Mayflower ancestry, so far as known. The proofs of this correction will be published in our next issue.

ISAAC SIMMONS' WIFE MARTHA. The Editor has identified Martha the wife of Isaac Simmons[4] (Mercy Pabodie[3], Elizabeth[2] Alden, John[1]). She was the daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth Chandler of Duxbury, and was not descended from John Alden, as has been claimed. An important article on this subject will be printed in an early issue.

SETH KNOWLES, REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER. From the original document, loaned by Mr. Henry Arey: "I Seth Knowles of orleans in the County of Barnstable Laboring man .... do constitute .... Dated 2 December, 1801. Signed "Seth knowls" Witnessed by "Thomas Arey" and "Enoch Hinkly" Acknowledged in Barnstable County, 2 December, 1801, before Isaac Sparrow, Justice of the Peace.

And Raging Waves in their worst Winds

Thither to Trade He Hoists Sayls apace,
And the much Ex-pert Mariner Compass
Sought to Guide the Bounding of the Seas,
And they will soon accomplish what He plans.

But how All upon the Seaward day,
When the Harbour is at the best,
Sooner than ever made a Gallant Sailor
Who's for Pascataway Port Master to the Ship and Amongst the Lost was Captain Collamore,
Whose Sad misfortune we shall now Declare

Some there were which Sails Extended had the most,
One of the Harbour, and did by the Sides,
Those was Vessels Hoisted out with Speed,
With Fraid to Get them Clear and Blowing Fresh
The Captain of the Ketch and Hoist up Sails,
And Standing with a Gallant Gale

He did Ex-pect with Speed to gain the Shore,
And so out in full way to Portsmouth well
He Lost up to the Winds and Sayls Accordingly,
For more to Purchase Ex-pedition and
That so he might be Quickly of the Wind,
And by it get the Easier Passage out,

But Tempest great Soon Overtook this Captain,
The Gale did so Increase and Encrease that Well Experienc'd Mariner was not His
And He Ex-pose a Sail to much as it did
And Soon Ex-pose a Sail to much as it did
Was Soon Ex-pose a Sail to much as it did

With the Two Ensigns made Distressed Waves,
Two Ensigns one Union & Jack Upon Each,
Signals of Distress Hoist up there were
The Sea so Boysterous and Tempestuous
No more than one could to the Sea found Sayls Split & the Ketch Dismasted Soon Became

Whether Some Sudden Gust with Fury Struck,
Or Sayls Split Rent Asunder Mast Gone by the Board
Or with Great Sea Struck Over Board
Not Known but Sure Soon Overset
Thus Ex-pose to the Sea Soon Became
Or Ahead of Leeway Gave Up to the Winds
The Sea Ran High Hoist Poop & Quarters so Good
They Help to become a Prey unto the Sea
Which Soon Became most Sure to do,
Sea and Storm Soon Became Like the Sayls before

When Surprised to Ships we Sudenly Spy,
Hoist Ensigns of Distress for Succour or Help
Soon one or Other must Relieve or Help
The SOS Signal Sent up there Soon Hoist
Was Signalls most Well Known Distressed
Which Hoist up by the Ships Immediately Spy'd

O Most Solemn Time to all the Fleet then,
When all upon a Sudden Sad News they Heard,
Most Lively Hearted and Hopefull Men,
Were Struck with Sad Dismay Indeed
In a Moment of Time all Dismal Sadness
For another Ships the very Good Reputation

But no Wonder at the Great Distresse,
A Corpse to be Picked up Captain Collamore,
A Friend and Acquaintance to Every
In the whole Harbour and Town
Then Soon Hoisted out Boats and Barges
With Speed to Get them Soon Launched
To Save such an Excellent Person

Now Some which Sails Extended had the most,
One of the Harbour, and did by the Sides,
Those was Vessels Hoisted out with Speed,
With Fraid to Get them Clear and Blowing Fresh
The Captain of the Ketch and Hoist up Sails,
And Standing with a Gallant Gale

A RARE BROADSIDE ON THE DEATH OF CAPTAIN ANTHONY COLLAMORE

By permission of one of our members, Mrs. Bailey Hall Hitchcock, who owns the original, we here reprint the rare broadside on the death of Captain Anthony Collamore of Scituate, Mass. The author of this "Threnodia," Decdat Lawson, was the pastor of the Second Church of Scituate. The original broadside, which was printed at Boston by Bartholomew Green, as shown by the accompanying illustration, is about twelve and three-fourths inches high by ten and one-fourth inches wide.

THRENODIA,

Or a Mournfull Remembrance, of the much to be Lamented Death of the Worthy & Pious

Capt. ANTHONY COLLAMORE,

Who together with Nine Persons more, were Cast-away in a SLOOP, going from Scituate Harbour towards Boston, On the 16. Day of December: 1693.

THE Great Jehovah is the Lord and King,
Both in the Heav'n & on the Earth;
What things Pleas Him in each to pass doth bring Nor can He in His Will resisted be.
He in His Mir retaines the Dolefous Wind,
And Raging Waves in a Governor binds.

'Tis but to Loose His Little Finger then,
And the most Furious blasts do Issue thence;
Enough to Terrify the stoutest Men,
Nor can they find against it a Defence.
'Tis But to Slack the binding of the Seas,
And they will soon accomplish what He Pleas.

December last upon the Sixteenth day,
Within the Harbour lay at Scituate;
Some Loaden Boats to Boston bound away,
Which for Fair Wind and Weather there did wait.
Amongst the Rest was Captain Collamore,
Whose sad disaster, we must now Deplore.

Some Boats with Sailes Expanded led the way,
Out of the Harbour; and did fairly glide;
Thus one by one stood out into the Bay,
With Wind at East North East and Flowing Tide.
The Captain in the Rere did Hoise up Saile,
And hasted after with a Steddy Gale.

He did his best with speed to quit the Shore,
And seemed in his way to Prosper well;
He Lufft up to the Wind and North-ward bore,
For near an Hour as Spectators tell:
That so he might be gaining of the Wind,
And to his Port the fairer Passage find.

But Dangers great did quickly him Surprize,
The Clouds did gather and obscure the Sun;
Winds whistled, Snow came thick, and Seas did rise;
And He was at a loss which way to run:
As did appear to some that were before,
Who quickly after, saw the Boat no more.

With him Five Persons more Embarqued were,
Two Men, one Woman, and two Ladds beside:
None did since that alive on Shore appear;
But were all Drowned in the Ocean wide.
No more but two are yet to this day found,
Which doth the hearts of their Relations wound.

Whether some hidden Rock with fatal stroke,
At once gave Final stop unto their Course;
By which their Stem was Jamm'd, and Boughs were Broke,
Not able to withstand so great a force.
Thus some conceive who saw and view'd the Rack
Which quickly to the Shore was hurled back.

Or whether Loaden over deep with Wood,
The Swelling Waves did fill her by degrees;
If then their Frozen Pump would do no good,
They soon became a Prey unto the Seas:
Which Violently over them did go,
And bore them down, into the deeps below.

What happ'ned to them we can only guess,
Because none of them did Survive to tell;
Nor can we think what Anguish did Possess,
Their SOULS, when this Disaster them befell.
We humbly must Adore GOD'S Providence,
Who in the Deeps, His Judgments doth dispense.

One Ephraim Turner near the Fatal place,
Was cast upon the Shore and next day found;
Most sorely batter'd on his Head and Face,
Who decently was Laid into the ground.
Relations of the Rest did search the Shore,
For thirteen dayes but they could find no more.

But on the Fourteenth day one did espie,
A Corps he judg'd was Captain Collamore;
Yet could not know him at a Certainty,
By any thing, but by the Cloaths he wore.
His Form and Visage utterly was lost,
Having by Waves on Rocks been so long toss'd.

His Friends, his Neighbours, and Relations all,
Prepare his Funeral to Solemnize;
His Souldiers also at the mournfull call,
Appear with Drooping hearts and Dripping eyes.
With many Tears they laid him in the dust,
To wait the Resurrection of the Just.

And now although Relations of the Rest,
Know their own Sorrows and Distress of mind;
While for the quieting their troubled Brest,
They in the Creature no relief can find.
Our Duty binds us all to Sympathize,
With such as Mourn in their Adversities.

But Publick Persons are a Publick loss,
Because more usefull, and more Eminent;
They in their places were the greater cross,
And the more sad Occasion to Lament.
The Death of Collamore we must bewaile,
Our Glory's going when the Faithfull faile.

What Offices he bore of any kind,
He did adorn with Carrige full of Grace;
His Modest, Humble, Condescending mind,
Could freely yield to any in their Place.
To all Degrees above him and below,
His rightly Order'd Courtesy did flow.

Unto this Province and the Government,
He was a Faithfull and a Constant Friend;
In all the troubles which they under-went,
And what he had, was willing to Expend:
For the Promotion of the Publick good,
At any time in what he understood.

In Scituate let each Inhabitant,
Greatly lament this worthy Person's fall;
Both Rich and Poor his Courtesy will want,
Who still was ready to oblige them all.
It was to many by Experience known,
He valu'd others good before his own.

He was the Captain of the Warlike train,
Love was his Banner, Love was his defence;
Their Chearfull Service was return'd again,
His Acceptation was their Recompence.
In that Great Company Command he bore,
Where Mustered two hundred men and more.

In Judgment sound, in Life Upright withall,
A Zealous Member of the Church was he;
His Studies and Endeavours were not small,
That so CHRIST'S Kingdom might Enlarged be.
A Deacon also Faithfull to his trust,
To do that onely which was right and Just.

The North Society in Scituate,
Hath lost a Leading Man, and Loving Friend;
Who ready was with Person and Estate,
On ev'ry good Occasion help to lend.
His Care and Conscience plainly did appear,
To settle and maintain GOD'S Worship there.

A Faithfull constant Husband to his Wife,
He also Tender was and Provident;
True Peace they Cherished, and banisht Strife,
Enjoying what they had with good Content.
GOD'S Blessing on their care and Industry,
Did yield them Comfort and Prosperity.

A Father carefull of his Children too,
Whose Love to Souls and Bodies did Extend;
He spared not the best that he could do,
In Warning them to mind their latter end.
He did his just Commands meekly Dispense,
And they did humbly yield Obedience.

He was a Master full of Gentleness,
Whose care it was things honest to Provide;
Obliging thus his Servants Faithfullness,
As he did in their diligence Confide.
So that to Serve him we may well Conclude
Was rather Freedom than a Servitude.

But GOD hath by his Sov'raign Providence,
Of such an Usefull Man this place bereft;
A deep Affecting and Afflicting sense,
Is well becoming each one that is left.
We all in his remove a loss sustain,
Which sure GOD onely can make up again.

Since therefore All things come alike to All,
This Comfort in our Mourning doth remain;
Though Duty binds us to lament his fall,
Yet in our Loss, He hath the greater Gain.
For Dying in the LORD, His Labours cease,
And of such Upright Men, The end is Peace.

The Old and Young this Awfull Sudden stroke,
Doth Testify with loudest Vehemence;
God tryes by others DEATH us to Provoke,
While it is Day to work with dilligence.
Let then both High and Low the Rich and Poor, Lament the DEATH of Captain Collamore.

SOULE NOTES

JOSHUA[3] SOULE (John[2], George[1]) of Duxbury, Mass., died in that town on 29 May, 1767.* In the following notes will be found abstracts (made from the original documents, so far as they are still preserved) of all records and original papers, relating to his estate, found in the Plymouth County probate records and files. The proper reference is given with each abstract.

[JOSHUA[3] SOULE'S WILL]

[20 : 73] "Joshua Soul of Duxborough . . . . yeoman" in his will, made 8 May, 1767, made bequests as follows:

To "son Ezekiel Soule, a small piece of salt-meadow laying on the skirt at the mouth of Philip's creek." also "one third part of my right in the great cedar-swamp, & I give him the ballance of what he is indebted to me which I believe is about two hundred & twenty pounds, or more."

To "son Joseph Soule, all my right . . . . to all the Lands & islands belonging to me in the township of North-yarmouth in the county of Cumberland" also "my half of Hamor Island, & the meadow I bo't of Samuel Baker at Point-Point.† "

To "son Nathan Soul the westerly part of the farm I now live on, from the hither or first wall, begining at the northeast corner of Drew's land that they bought of Ezekiel Soul so runing to the northward as the old wall fence run to the side of the bank so the same course to the last ebb, always reserving a convenient cartway out of the neck on the upland thro' gates or barrs." also "one half of my wood-lots, & one third of my right in the cedar-swamp, & one half of my meadow I bought of M[r] Abraham Samson & my Gotom lot."

SAMUEL[2] RIDER OF PLYMOUTH HAD TWO WIVES, SARAH BARTLETT AND LYDIA TILDEN

By George Ernest Bowman

As announced in the January issue, the Editor has proved that Samuel[2] Rider (Samuel[1]) of Plymouth, who married Sarah Bartlett[3] (Mary[2] Warren, Richard[1]) on 23 December, 1656,* and the Samuel Rider who married Lydia Tilden at Taunton, 14 June, 1680,† were not father and son. They were one and the same person, and Samuel[2] Rider's children by his second wife, Lydia Tilden, were not descended from any Mayflower passenger, so far as known.

Samuel[2] Rider married, first, Sarah Bartlett, as stated, and had a son Samuel born at Plymouth, 18 November, 1657.‡ This son Samuel, it has been claimed, married Lydia Tilden in 1680. But the record of his birth is the only record yet found which can be connected with this child, and the proof is absolute that the 1680 marriage was the second marriage of the father.

Samuel[2] Rider's death is recorded as follows:

"Samuel Rider Deceased July 18th 1715" [Town Rcds., I: 205]

"Samuell Rider Senr July 18th in ye [§] year of his Age" [Church Rcds., in list of "Members Dyed" in 1715]

"Mr Samuel Ryder, who decd July ye [‖] 1715 about ye 85th year of his age" [Gravestone on Burial Hill]

From the gravestone and church records we learn that Samuel[2] Rider, Sr., was born about 1630; and his will, printed herewith, shows that he left a widow Lydia and thirteen children.

Lydia (Tilden) Rider was buried in the old cemetery at Manomet, in Plymouth. "Mrs Lydia Rider Widdow of mr Samll Rider" died 17 September, 1740, "in ye 83d" year of her age. This record from her gravestone agrees with the date of birth of Lydia, the daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth

* Ante, III: 110, 116.

† Plym. Col. Marriages, Births, etc., p. 88.

‡ Ibid., p. 19.

§ The age was not recorded.

‖ In Kingman's "Epitaphs from Burial Hill" the day of the month has been inserted, but a personal examination shows that the day was never cut on the stone.

(Bourne) (Waterman) Tilden, who was born 26 April, 1658,* and Thomas Tilden, in his will, dated 1 February, 1704, gives "to my Daughter Lidia Rider twenty shillings over and above the Portion I have Formerly Given her."†

Since the Samuel, "Sen[r]", who died in 1715, was born about 1630 and left a widow Lydia and eleven of the twelve children recorded to Samuel and Lydia (Tilden) Rider,‡ it is clear that Lydia's husband was not the child born in 1657. Moreover we find in the Plymouth First Church records, in a list of members admitted in 1692, "Lydia (second) wife of Samuel Rider." The word "(second)" is enclosed in parentheses in the original. It was interlined and a caret inserted between "Lydia" and "wife" all in the same ink — and by the same person who made the original entry. This interlineation was evidently made at the same time as the original entry.

Since Lydia was Samuel[2] Rider's second wife, all children not by her must have been by his first wife, Sarah Bartlett. As already stated, Sarah's son Samuel does not appear on the records after his birth is entered, but Samuel[2] and Lydia gave the name Samuel to their son born 26 July, 1688,§ and it is probable that Sarah's son Samuel was not then living.

Lydia's son Samuel survived his father but a short time. He had married Ann Eldreden on 17 February, 1713. In the marriage record and also in the record of the births of his three children, Keziah, Ezekiel and Samuel, he is called "Junior."‖

His widow Anna was appointed administratrix, 17 July, 1718, and on 13 April, 1744, the real estate was settled on the son Ezekiel, he paying certain amounts to his brother Samuel and to Ann and Keziah, minor children of William Swift of Sandwich, the heirs of his sister Keziah, deceased. [Plym. Co. Deeds, 9 : 309] On 19 April, 1744, Ezekiel sold to Benjamin Rider land at Manoment Ponds, "Said granted Premises is the Same that was laid out to y[e] Heirs of my Hon[d] Father Sam[l] Rider deceas[d] as their Part of the Homestead wheron my Grandfather in his Life time dwelt" [Plym. Co. Deeds, 36 : 179. See also the deed from Samuel[2] to sons Samuel[3] and Benjamin[3] printed herewith.]

Since but one son Samuel survived Samuel[2] Rider, and no children of a deceased son Samuel are mentioned in his will,

(Bourne) (Waterman) Tilden, who was born 26 April, 1658,* and Thomas Tilden, in his will, dated 1 February, 1704, gives "to my Daughter Lidia Rider twenty shillings over and above the Portion I have Formerly Given her."†

Since the Samuel, "Sen^r", who died in 1715, was born about 1630 and left a widow Lydia and eleven of the twelve children recorded to Samuel and Lydia (Tilden) Rider,‡ it is clear that Lydia's husband was not the child born in 1652. Moreover we find in the Plymouth First Church records, in a list of members admitted in 1692, "Lydia (second) wife of Samuel Rider." The word "(second)" is enclosed in parentheses in the original. It was interlined and a caret inserted between "Lydia" and "wife" all in the same ink — and by the same person who made the original entry. This interlineation was evidently made at the same time as the original entry.

[Plym. Co. [Plym. Co. Deeds, 30 : 179.] See also the deed from Samuel[2] to sons Samuel[3] and Benjamin[3] printed herewith.]

it is certain that the first son Samuel, born in 1657, died young, or before 1688 without issue.

Samuel[2] and Sarah had another son, John, born about 1663, as shown by the affidavit printed herewith. He survived his father and left many children, by two wives.

Samuel and Sarah (Bartlett) Rider had a third child, a daughter Mercy. The only reference to her yet found on the records is in her father's will, dated 7 April, 1714. His statement that he already has "done Competently for" her, proves that she was then married, or of age. The list of births of Lydia's children appears to be complete, and since they were born so near together it is not probable that Mercy was accidentally omitted in recording. Moreover the church records note the baptisms of Lydia's children Sarah, William, Lydia, Samuel, Elizabeth, Joseph and Benjamin, each in the year of birth, and it would be strange indeed if Mercy was accidentally omitted in both town and church records.

There can be no question that Mercy was the daughter of Sarah (Bartlett) Rider, and it is probable that she was married, but no clue to her married name has yet been discovered.

The following abstracts, of Samuel[2] Rider's deed of gift to his sons Samuel[3] and Benjamin[3], of his will, and of a deposition and a deed by his son John, were made from the original documents and records.

Samuel[3] and Sarah had another son, John, born about 1665, as shown by the affidavit printed herewith. He survived his father and left many children, by two wives.

Samuel and Sarah (Bartlett) Rider had a third child, a daughter Mercy. The only reference to her yet found on the records is in her father's will, dated 7 April, 1714. This statement that he already has "done Compleatly for" her, proves that she was then married, or of age. The list of births of Lydia's children appears to be complete, and since they were born so near together it is not probable that Mercy was accidentally omitted in recording. Moreover the church records note the baptisms of Lydia's children Sarah, William, Lydia, Samuel, Elizabeth, Joseph and Benjamin, each in the year of birth, and it would be strange indeed if Mercy was accidentally omitted in both town and church records.

The deed was dated 7 April, 1714, and signed by a mark. It was witnessed by Ephraim Little and Josiah Morton. It was acknowledged, 12 October, 1714, by Samuel Rider "and at the same time Lidia his wife also Appeared and gave up her right in the premises. Before me James Warren Justice of the Peace" It was recorded 18 October, 1714, by William Little, Register.

THE SCROOBY MANOR-HOUSE

By Morton Dexter

There seems to be some misunderstanding about the age of this house. Several statements recently have come under my notice to the effect that it is comparatively modern, and is the successor of, and entirely distinct from, the building which the Pilgrims knew. These statements appear to be mistaken for the following reasons.

No proof ever has come to light that the house in which Elder Brewster lived was wholly demolished and another erected upon its site. There is testimony that in 1637, because it had ceased to be needed for use by the Archbishop of York and had fallen into partial decay, considerable was done in the way of tearing it down, but there is no proof that this demolition was complete.

There was no occasion for its entire destruction. From

* "Jan^{r}" was crossed out and "Dec^{r}" interlined in the same hand.

rewster's time to the present a house has been needed on ıe estate for the use of the bailiff or farmer in charge. When was no longer required for his own occasional stays by the rchbishop it was too large and too costly to be maintained r any other use, and the natural course was to demolish the rger part of it and to leave standing, and put into proper con-tion, so much of it as was required for the uses of a tenant.
his manifestly is what was done.

There is distinct, positive and apparently conclusive evidence ıat a portion of the present farmhouse formed a part of the palace" or "manor-house" in Brewster's time. All the out-ıildings — including the cow-house, into which were built the ırved beams probably taken from the great hall or the chapel the "palace" — must be comparatively recent. But as to ıe farmhouse itself, its construction tells a different story.

Perhaps half of the house is essentially modern in character.
ut the other half, the southern, evidently is much older and ıtes back to the time of the original structure. Its walls are veral feet thick in several places. It has some of the small indows which used to be common three hundred years ago.
here are one or two niches which no farmhouse ever would ıve been likely to contain, as well as several large arched win-ows or doorways, now bricked up, which, like the niches, can ıve had no modern use but would have found a natural place a building having, as we know that the original edifice had, great hall and a chapel.

It is difficult to believe that an examination of the house, it is today, and a comparison of it with what is recorded out the structure in which Brewster lived, can fail in pro-ıcing the conviction that a part of the present building is uch older than the remainder, and that this more ancient rtion formed a part of the "manor-house" in which Brewster ved and in which the Pilgrims organized their church and anned their escape from England.

[A full-page cut of the Scrooby Manor-House, accompanying an ticle, by Mr. Dexter, "In and About Scrooby," will be found in our cond volume. Mr. Dexter's invaluable work, "The England and Hol-nd of the Pilgrims," published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston, 1905, ntains an extended account of the Manor-House. — EDITOR.]

ADAM WRIGHT'S WIVES AND THEIR CHILDREN

By George Ernest Bowman

Adam Wright[3] (Hester[2] Cooke, Francis[1]) of Plymouth and Plympton, Mass., was twice married and had children by both wives, hence it is necessary to determine which children were by the first wife and which were by the second. This is of especial importance because the children of the first wife, Sarah[3] Soule (John[2], George[1]) had two Mayflower ancestors, Francis Cooke and George Soule; but the children of the second wife, Mehitable Barrow (daughter of George), had only one Mayflower ancestor, so far as known.

The date of Sarah[3] Soule's marriage to Adam Wright, the date of her death, and the date of Adam Wright's marriage to Mehitable Barrow are unknown. Sarah was living 16 March, 1690/1, when she signed the deed printed herewith; but she probably died before 1699, since Mehitable's son Samuel, who died 5 January, 1773, in his 74th year, must have been born about 1699. [Ante, p. 197.]

Adam Wright's will, made 9 April, 1723 [Ante, 4 : 239], mentions wife Mehitable; sons John, Isaac, Samuel, Moses, James and Nathan; grandchildren Joshua Pratt and his sister Sarah, the children of deceased daughter Esther Pratt; daughter Sarah, the wife of Seth Fuller; daughter Mary, the wife of Jeremiah Gifford; and daughter Rachel, the wife of Ebenezer Barlow. Of these ten sons and daughters but six, John Wright, Isaac Wright, Esther Pratt, Sarah Fuller, Mary Gifford and Rachel Barlow, were children of the first wife, Sarah[3] Soule. The other four sons, Samuel Wright, Moses Wright, James Wright and Nathan Wright, were children of the second wife, Mehitable Barrow.

The appended abstracts from original records prove that Adam Wright was the son of Richard Wright and the grandson of Francis Cooke; that his first wife, Sarah, was living 16 March, 1690/1; that his second wife, Mehitable, was the daughter of George Barrow of Plympton; that his daughter Sarah, the wife of Seth Fuller of Plympton, was living 22 June, 1725.

It is evident from the terms of the appended deed, given 14 November, 1738, by the heirs of Sarah[3] Soule, that the grantors named in the deed were, at that date, the only surviving heirs of Sarah[3] Soule. The deed was signed by John Wright, Isaac Wright, Joshua Dunham and Sarah his wife, Ebenezer Barlow and Rachel his wife, and Jeremiah Gifford and Mary his wife. Archippus Fuller is named in the deed as one of the grantors, but he did not sign it. John and Isaac Wright, Rachel Barlow and Mary Gifford are at once identified as four of the children of Adam Wright, as named in his will, and the confirmatory deed from Archippus Fuller, dated 1 September, 1742, proves that he was the son and heir of Sarah Fuller (another of Adam Wright's daughters), who must have died before the deed of 14 November, 1738, was drawn.

Joshua Dunham and his wife Sarah are the only other grantors (in this deed of 1738) to be identified, and it will be shown that Sarah was the only surviving child of Esther (Wright) Pratt. Adam Wright's will mentions "my two Grand : children : viz : Joshua Pratt & Sarah his sister children of my Daughter Esther Pratt dec^{d}" Daniel Pratt and Esther Wright were married 23 January, 1700/1,* and had two children recorded at Plympton, Joshua, 27 December, 1701, and Sarah, 1 October, 1703. Immediately following these two births are recorded Daniel Pratt's children, Benjamin and Esther, "by Mary his wife" [Ante, 5 : 183] The date of Esther (Wright) Pratt's death has not been found, but Daniel Pratt married, second, Mary Washburn, on 1 October, 1706.† He married a third wife, Annis, as shown by his will, but I have not attempted to identify her.

Daniel Pratt died at Plympton, 7 May, 1739, in his 59th year, and his widow died 21 February, 1760, in her 77th year. [Ante, 10 : 220, 221] His will, dated 30 March, 1739, and proved 18 May, 1739, mentions wife Annis, sons Benjamin, Nathaniel, Jabez, James (under age) and Joshua (under age), daughter "Easter the wife of John Howard" and "my Loveing Daughter Sarah y^{e} wife of Joshua Donham" [Plymouth Co. Prob. Rcds. 8 : 46] As the son Joshua Pratt was under age on 30 March, 1739, he must have been born after 30 March, 1718, therefore he could not have been Esther (Wright) Pratt's son Joshua, who was born in 1701, and was mentioned in Adam Wright's will dated 9 April, 1723. Esther's son Joshua, therefore, died between 9 April, 1723, and 14 November, 1738, the date of the deed by Sarah^{3} Soule's heirs. In the Plymouth town records we find: "Joshua Dunham Published To Sarah Pratt ffebruary 16th 1722/23" [1 : 265] and "The Children of Joshua Donham & Sarah Donham his wife" The children were: James, 16 December, 1723; Sarah, 26 January, 1725/6;

* Plymouth Town Records, I : 133.

† Ibid., I : 135.

Joshua, 27 November, 1727, died young; Mercy, 8 November, 1729; Bathshua, 7 January, 1731/2; Elizabeth, 10 June, 1733; Joshua, 15 February, 1735/6; Lucy, 18 February, 1737/8; Levi, 1 June, 1743; Elisha, 25 November, 1744. [1 : 106]

On 14 November, 1738, therefore, Sarah[3] Soule's heirs were her sons John Wright and Isaac Wright, her daughters Mary Gifford and Rachel Barlow, and her grandchildren Archippus Fuller (only heir of his mother, Sarah Wright) and Sarah (Pratt) Dunham (only surviving heir of her mother, Esther Wright).

THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. XII JANUARY, 1910 No. 1

RECORDS FROM THE OLD NORTH CEMETERY, TRURO, MASS.

Communicated by STANLEY W. SMITH

IN September, 1909, the writer, with Messrs. Edward H. Whorf, Clarence P. Whorf, Arthur M. Jones and John W. Willard, visited the Old North Cemetery in Truro, Mass., and with great care compared with the gravestones there all the data printed in the pamphlet "Inscriptions From Gravestones in the Old North Cemetery, Truro, Mass., From 1713 to 1840." * The errors in the pamphlet were carefully noted; and all other inscriptions in the cemetery, dated prior to 1851, with a few of later date, were copied and verified. A few stones were found, of earlier date than 1840, which had been overlooked by the compiler of the pamphlet.

The work of one member of the party, not the present writer, calls for especial mention. Nearly two entire days were spent by him in a very careful search for pieces of the gravestone shown in the accompanying illustration, and in fitting together the parts found. Nearly all the fragments had been long buried in the ground, some of them at quite a distance from the original stone, yet eighty or more pieces, some of them less than one-half an inch long, were recovered. All but six small pieces, each under one inch in length, were fitted into their proper places, and the inscription, with the exception of the third figure of the year, can now be read without difficulty. The small remaining portion of the doubtful figure in the year shows that this figure must have been "3" or "5", and the uncertainty is removed by the inscription on the footstone, which reads: "Mr Jonathan Harding 1752"

* Provincetown, Mass., 1897.

BARTLETT NOTES

By George Ernest Bowman

Under the general title of "Bartlett Notes" we shall print, from time to time, abstracts from the numerous notes made by the Editor, from original records and documents, relating to the descendants of Robert Bartlett of Plymouth, who married Mary[2] Warren, daughter of Richard[1] Warren of The Mayflower.

In this issue we give abstracts of all the probate records, and unrecorded documents remaining in the probate files of Plymouth County, relating to the estate of Joseph Bartlett[3] (Mary[2] Warren, Richard[1]) of Plymouth. The proper reference is noted in each case.

Joseph Bartlett[3] died 18 February, 1711, in his 73d year, and his wife, Hannah[2] Pope (Thomas[1]), died 12 March, 1710, in her 72d year. [Gravestones, Burial Hill.]

The settlement of Joseph's estate shows that there were four sons and three daughters, viz: Robert Bartlett[4], Joseph Bartlett[4] (died before his father), Elnathan Bartlett[4], Benjamin Bartlett[4], Hannah, the wife of Joseph Sylvester, Mary, the wife of John Barnes, and Sarah, the wife of Elisha Holmes.

[From the original inventory.] "An Inventory Of the Goods and Chattles of M[r] Joseph Bartlett late of Plymouth deceased taken . . . . february 29 . 1711." by Ephraim Little, John Dyer and Stephen Barnebe. Among the items are "an Ivory headed Cane"; "his Interest in whaleboats and fishing boats canoes &c"; "Interest in y[e] last whale voyage"; "funeral charges and Gravestones" £6; "the pew in the meeting house" £5; "due . "Memorand on the 8[th] day of March $17\frac{11}{12}$ . . . . Robert Bartlett Administrator to the Estate of his father Joseph Bartlett late of Plimouth Deceased made oath that the above written is a true Inventory" [The inventory is also recorded, 3 : 106.]

Two of our members who lived at Swanzey sent to us to desire their dismissions to the chh there, the chh met Nov: 18 : & agreed the Elders should in their name returne answer in the Negative, because the bretheren of Swanzey renounced communion with us or soe much as to be present when wee administred Infant Baptisme & did rebaptize our chh-seed.

The chh of Duxbury sent to us to be present by our messengers at their ordination of Mr Ichabod Wiswall to be their Pastor, on November, 24 : the Pastor, Ruling Elder, Deacon Finney & Deac: Morton were chosen & then present.

A chh-meeting was called by the Elders to be on February, 10 : It was then moved to the chh by Elder that wee should doe well to set apart a day yea dayes for Humiliation for sundry weighty causes then named, the chh manifested their readynesse to comply therewith.

At this meeting the Elders told the chh, a Brother earnestly desired the Psalmes might be read in publick worship, because else he was incapable of practising that ordinance ; The matter was much agitated, the Elder propounded to the chh to speake man by man, whether they Judged reading the Psalmes in order to singing was lawfull & that they could rest in the practise of it. The issue of the meeting was the chh desired the Pastor that he would in his publick Preaching hold [p. 11] forth from scripture the lawfullnesse & necessity of reading the Psalmes, which he exprest his willingnesse & purpose to doe, & till then the practise of reading might be deferred.

THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. XII APRIL, 1910 No. 2

GRAVESTONE RECORDS FROM THE OLD CEMETERY AT "THE GREEN," MIDDLEBOROUGH, MASS.

COMMUNICATED BY JOHN W. WILLARD

IN October, 1907, and October, 1908, the writer made copies of all inscriptions dated prior to 1851, with a few of later date, found in the old cemetery at "The Green," in Middleborough, Mass. These copies were very carefully compared with the records from this cemetery printed by Charles M. Thatcher in "The Genealogical Quarterly Magazine" * and its successor, "The Genealogical Magazine," * and the numerous differences in names, ages and dates were noted. In November, 1909, with the assistance of Messrs. Stanley W. Smith, Arthur M. Jones and the late Edward H. Whorf, the copies made by the present writer were carefully compared with the original stones, and especial attention was given to all cases in which these copies did not agree with the Thatcher copies. This comparison disclosed the fact that there are more than two hundred and sixty (260) errors, of name, age or date, in the Thatcher copies as printed, and that there are in the cemetery forty (40) stones dated prior to 1850 (including ten prior to 1800) which were overlooked by Mr. Thatcher.

A few of the more important errors should be especially noted at this time. Francis "Bonney" should have been printed "Pomory." "Nathan, son of" William Cushman should be "Welthea, daughter of." "Matthias" Ellis should be "Lucy, wife of Matthias." "Martha, wife of" Joseph Faunce should be "Hannah, widow of." "Florance," relict of Lieut. Nelson Finney should be "Rosamond." "Elisha" Freeman, 1810, should be "Nancy, wife of Elisha." Elizabeth, wife of Joseph "Morton," and Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth "Morton," should, in both cases, be "Clarke" instead of "Morton." Charles Gilbert Nichols, "son of Charles G." should be "son of James G." Francena, Marcena S. and J. Almedia, all three printed as daughters of James P. and Persis L. Sparrow, were daughters of Ivory H. and Jerusha B. Thompson. "William, son of John and Martha." Soule, should be "Nathan, son of." "Mrs. Lucy F." Thomas should be "Lucy, widow of Ezra" Thomas. "Mrs. Martha" Tomson should be "Martha, widow of Thomas Tomson of Halifax." Francis Thompson, died 17 December, 1798, aged 63 years, should have "9 months, 2 days" added to his age; and "Francis" Thompson died "Dec. 17, 1798, in his 85 year" should be "Mary, wife of Francis, died 17 December, 1829, in her 85th year." "Mrs. Content" Weston should be "Miss Content."

The copies made by the present writer, which were twice carefully checked by the original stones, were presented to the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants, and all the genealogical facts contained in the inscriptions will be found in the following abstracts.

The illustration accompanying this article shows the gravestones of the two wives of Jeremiah Thomas, Lydia, who died 6 July, 1717, in her 52d year, and Mary, who survived her husband and died 15 November, 1749, in her 85th year. Jeremiah Thomas died 2 February, 1736, in his 77th year, and lies buried between his wives, with Lydia at the right and Mary at the left. At the bottom of Lydia's stone is the following: "She was y^e^ first person buried in this place"; and Mary's stone bears the same inscription. A careful comparison of the two stones shows that they are of the same size and have exactly the same ornamentation. It seems probable, therefore, that the stonecutter was directed to make a duplicate of the first wife's stone, except as to name, date and age, and followed his instructions too literally.

WHITE NOTES

The records here presented were transcribed by the Editor from the original records of Rochester, Mass. They relate to the families of Samuel[3] White (Resolved[2], William[1]); of three of his sons, John[4], Samuel[4] and Malatiah[4]; and of two of his grandsons, John[5] and Thomas[5], sons of John[4].

The record of Samuel[3] White's family does not mention the given name of his wife, but it states that she was born about 13 March, 1646. Samuel[3] White sold land in 1671, and he, with wife Rebecca, acknowledged the deed in 1677.* Since his wife was named Rebecca, and was born about 13 March, 1646, she must have been the Rebecca White who died at Rochester, 25 June, 1711, in her 65th year. Rebecca's maiden name has not been discovered.

ALEXANDER[2] STANDISH'S WILL AND INVENTORY AND THE SETTLEMENT OF HIS ESTATE

By George Ernest Bowman

Alexander[2] Standish (Capt. Myles[1]) of Duxbury was twice married. His first wife was Sarah[2] Alden (John[1]), but the date of their marriage, the dates on which their children were born, and the date of Sarah's death are unknown. The second wife was Desire[2] (Doty) (Sherman) Holmes, the widow of William Sherman and of Israel Holmes, and the daughter of Edward[1] Doty of the Mayflower. The date of the marriage of Alexander and Desire has not been discovered, but the births of their three children, and Desire's death, we have already printed. [Ante, 7 : 134, 12 : 48.]

Alexander[2] Standish made his will 21 February, 1701/2, and added a codicil 5 July, 1702, and the will was probated 10 August, 1702. Four of the daughters by the first wife, with their husbands, contested the will, and a copy of the "Caveat" is in the probate files. From this document, which seems to have been overlooked by other writers, we learn that Alexander Standish died 6 July, 1702, "being about 76 years of age"; that he had two sons and five daughters by his first wife and "lived a widdower many years" after her death; that at least four of the daughters by Sarah[2] Alden were married before their father's second marriage, and that this second marriage took place about sixteen years before he died.

The will was approved by the probate court, but in the following year the daughters by the first wife, and their husbands, petitioned for the distribution among them of some land which had not been disposed of by the will. The son Miles[3] opposed such distribution, claiming the whole. The probate court ordered the land settled on Miles[3], as the eldest son, he paying specified amounts to each of his brothers and sisters.

Thomas White their son was born april y^e 29^th 1727
John White their son was born February y^e 13^th 1729
Jedidah White their daughter was born october y^e 20^th 1732
Hopeful White their Daughter was born Sept 22^th 1735
[These six entries are all in one hand, and all but the last were entered at one time.]

(To be continued.)

The records, and unrecorded papers in the files, in the Plymouth County Registry of Probate are too numerous to be printed at one time, therefore they will be presented in chronological order, and will be completed in our next issue. The proper reference will be given with each record, or unrecorded paper.

[The Caveat]

[From unrecorded paper] The Caveat or Contest of y^e^ Will of M^r^ Standish

Plimouth August y^e^ 10^th^ 1702 To y^e^ Honoured William Bradford Esq^r^ Sir There having been a paper presented to your self as y^e^ Supposed last will and Testament of m^r^ Alexander Standish late of Duxborough deceased for probate and your Approbation of the same We therefore y^e^ Subscribers five of y^e^ sons in law in y^e^ Right and behalf of our selves and his daughters our Wives Humbly offer our Reasons against y^e^ probate thereof which are as followeth.

first We Conceive your self hath not Sufficient power to make probate of wils &c since y^e^ Death of y^e^ late king not having had a Commission for your so doing from her present Majesty Queen Anne.

2^dly^ We say y^e^ said pretended will ought not to be proved nor approved for these Reason[s] viz^t^ : 1 for that Every man that makes a will ought to be of sound mind and memory that is to say : as y^e^ law explains it to be able to make a disposition of his estate with Reason and understanding And for this we Instance that famouse case of y^e^ Marquess of Winchester y^e^ 31 : of Eliz in y^e^ Kings Bench Reported by y^e^ lord chief Justice Coke : In which Case it was Resolved that a Testator at y^e^ making of his will ought to be of a memory not only to Answer ordinary & familiar Questions but also have a disposing memory so as to be able to make a disposition of his lands with Reason and understanding And that is such a memory which y^e^ law Calls Sanæ Memoriæ. Now we say that our said ffather being about 76 years of age when he dyed was not only through age decayed but otherwise also So as he was not of a disposing mind to will his estate with Reason and understanding as by y^e^ pretended Will it Self is Manifest And this is so essentiall to y^e^ making of a will that tho he made it himself and named an executor and had witness that saw him sign seal and declare the same for his will as it seemes they did and they thought he was of a disposing mind also : yet if by y^e^ will it self and manner of disposall it appear otherwise as in truth this Pretended Will doth All is nothing worth and voyd of it self And it must be a mans own actions that must prove him to be wanting of memory and understanding for to make his will which this his writing will plainly demonstrate if it be Considered.

1 The state of his family He had by his first wife who was daughter to y^e^ Worshipfull M^r^ John Alden a good and a prudent woman two sons and 5 daughters and after her decease he lived a widdower many years untill all his sd 5 daughte[rs] or 4 of them were marryed to whome he gave very little and to some of them nothing at all in his life time but promised to Consider them in his will. About 16 years before he dyed he marryed a second wife who what estate she had Reserved it to her self at marriage. By her he had two sons and one daughter. To Ebenezer his Second son by his first wife he gave about one hundred pounds being y^e^ produce of Some part of his farm which himself sold by Deed in his life time.

2^dly^ Consider y^e^ estate he left when he dyed his farm in Duxborough apprized at 400 pounds his lands at Bridgewater apprised at 200 pounds his movables of all sorts at 117 pounds

3^dly^ And now let y^e^ paper called his will be Considered he began it in ffebruary last and end it in y^e^ 5^th^ of July last 1702 y^e^ day before he dyed. Time long enough to have disposed of his estate well Had he been of a disposing memory.

1 He Gives to his Eldest Son Miles which he had by his first wife his farm he lived on in Duxborough . yet so words it that y^e^ Greatest part of the meadow is excluded out of y^e^ Bounds he sets to it so that y^e^ most part of his meadow is left wholly undisposed of

2 He so Incumbers his ffarm which he gives his son aforesaid first by keeping of Cows and sheep for his widdow 2 by providing her with fire wood at her doore 3 by providing her bread Corne of all sorts 4 by her sons 5 acres of good land within fence and this will hold during their lives what manure they please to dongue it : 5^ly^ The use of his Teame and all sorts of Husbandry Instruments . And to his Widdow y^e^ Command of all the house w^th^ severall other Incumbrances . And were y^e^ ffarme with y^e^ meadow afores^d^ let it would not yield nor were worth above ten Pounds p^r^ annum . And it is more worth than 20 pounds p^r^ annum to performe those things Given out of it so that his son must needs give more than ten pounds a year to his Mother in law & her sons more than y^e^ farm will yield if he had had y^e^ meadow with it And thus he hath made his eldes[t] son a servant for life or to pay her and hers ten pounds p^r^ annu[m] for nothing that is to say being no ways enabled to pay it but by his own labour And altho his Eldest son having Married her daughter will to please his Mother in law or for fear of displeasing of her take up with y^e^ will yet it proves nevertheless that his ffather was not of a disposing mind and memory for y^e^ Argument that we are upon is to prove from his own writing that he was not Capable to dispose of his estate with Reason and understanding and y^e^ sons acceptance of an Irationall will Can not make the Will Rationall

2^dly^ He Cuts off his 5 Daughters which he had by his first wife onely with 5 shillings apeece All married as was said before and each a mother of Sundrey children well disposed women and borne of as Good a mother & prudent a woman as any in her day in y^e^ town where she lived And there Can be no Reason Rendered why he should so do only that he was not Sanæ Memoriæ.

3^dly^ He Gives his wife besides what she brought with her one third part of all his movables yet so disposes of his movable estate to his three children he had by her as he leaves not Sufficient to pay his debts and for her thirds undisposed of This was Surely for want of memory or understanding.

4^thly^ Sundrey other things there are in y^e^ said writing very absurd as the disposing of his Teame &c sundrey ways y^e^ disposing of some things sundrey times y^e^ disposing of what was not his own y^e^ doubtfull and Indistinct wording his bequests which will occasion much trouble & difficulty to understand his meaning with severall other Incongrueties which makes it yet more plaine he wanted Reason and understanding.

5 And finally he Gives to his wife & y^e^ three children he had by her all his estate both Real and personall in hand and in hope and more than ten pounds p^r^ annum over and above what all his estate will produce to be paid and performed by his eldest son whome he makes his Executor but leaves him nothing to pay it with but his own labour so that he must be her servant for sell his farm he Cannot And he has little meadow to enable him to perform those Injunctions layd upon him y^e^ most part of y^e^ meadow being undisposed of. Surely all men must needs say in making this will he wanted Reason & understanding which is y^e^ principal essence of a will. And that it is much better for all y^e^ family to declare it null & voyd for which cause we say y^e^ same ought to be Quashed & declared to be null and voyd to all Intents and purposes. All which Humbly offered by us the Subscribers

BENJAMIN CHANDLER'S CHILDREN

By George Ernest Bowman

From the town and church records of Scituate, Mass., we learn that Benjamin and Elizabeth Chandler, of Scituate (and later of Duxbury), had children: Martha, Samuel, John, Mary, Keturah and Benjamin, born between 1672 and 1685. The abstracts from the probate and land records herewith printed prove that the Benjamin Chandler whose estate was settled 17 March, 1691/2, was the father of these children, and of two more, Joseph and Elizabeth, who have not been found on the town or church records; they prove also that the widow Elizabeth Chandler, who made her will 22 April, 1728, was the mother of the eight children named, and, therefore, could not have been the widow of Edmund Chandler of Duxbury, as claimed by other writers. These abstracts further prove that Martha, the wife of Isaac Simmons, was the oldest daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth Chandler, and, therefore, was not a daughter of Edmund and Elizabeth (Alden) Chandler, as has been claimed by others.

The settlement of Benjamin Chandler's estate shows that he left a widow Elizabeth, also four sons and four daughters, all under age, but not mentioned by name.

The three deeds given by Samuel, Benjamin and Joseph Chandler, to their "Brother John Chandler", of parts of the estate of their father Benjamin Chandler, clearly identify the four sons of Benjamin and Elizabeth Chandler.

The will of Elizabeth Chandler, widow, names the same four sons, Samuel, John, Benjamin and Joseph, and three daughters, Mary, Keturah and Elizabeth. Of the six children recorded at Scituate we have, therefore, identified five, Samuel, John, Mary, Keturah and Benjamin, as the children of Widow Elizabeth Chandler in 1728.

The oldest daughter, Martha, married Isaac Simmons, had four children, Deborah, Sarah, Isaac and Priscilla, born between 1696 and 1709 [Ante, viii : 178 and vi : 69], and died before her mother's will was made. The record of the marriage of Isaac Simmons and Martha Chandler has not been found, but Martha is named as the mother in the birth record of each child. We find also, in the Marshfield First Church records, under date of 5 December, 1708, "martha simons was receaved into this church wife to Isaac Simons", and under date of 19 August, 1717, "martha simons had 4 children baptised viz deborah Sarah Isaac & one so frowerd would not be baptised" Three of these children are mentioned in Elizabeth Chandler's will, receiving one-fourth of the residuary estate. Elizabeth Chandler did not mention her daughter Martha in her will, but since the three children of Isaac and Martha Simmons received the same amount that was given to each of the three living daughters, Mary, Keturah and Elizabeth, it is certain that these Simmons children were widow Elizabeth Chandler's grandchildren, although their relationship is not stated in the will.

[Benjamin Chandler's Estate, 1691]

[Plymouth Co. Prob. Records, 1 : 128] An inventory of the estate of "the late Deceased Benjamin Chandler" was taken 6 October, 1691, by Thomas Delano and Edward Southworth. The house and lands were valued at £90. The estate was indebted to Capt. Thomas, Edward Southworth, John Simons, Joseph Ford, John Rouse, Anthony Collimer and Hope Besbey.

"Elizabeth Chandler Relict widdow of Benjamin Chandler late of Duxborough Deceased" made oath to the inventory "before y^e^ County Court at Plimouth march 16^th^ 169$\frac{1}{2}$" and she was appointed administratrix the same day. [From unrecorded original] The original bond of the administratrix, dated 16 March, 1691/2, is in the files. Elizabeth Chandler signed by a mark. Her sureties were Joseph Chandler (probably her brother-in-law) and Edward Southworth, both of Duxbury. The witnesses were Isaac Winslow and Samuel Sprague.

[Court Records, "Quarter Sessions 1687–1721", p. 74] At a court held 17 March, 1691/2.

"In Refference to the Settlement of y^e^ Estate of Benjamin Chandler late of Duxborough Deceased. The Court order as followeth.

viz^t^ That y^e^ Widdow shall have one third of y^e^ Goods and chattels at her own Dispose And the Remaining two thirds for Bringing up the children Some of them being Impotent and helpless & the estate small as p^r^ the Inventory may appear And that s^d^ widdow have one third of y^e^ house and lands During her life and that y^e^ other two thirds be parted between the four sons of s^d^ Deceased viz^t^ to ye eldest son a double part and to y^e^ other each a Single share thereof to be possessed by them as they shall Respectively attain to y^e^ age of twenty one years they then paying to their four sisters the daughters of s^d^ Deceased the Sum of eight pounds (viz^t^) forty shillings apeece the Eldest son to pay two fifths of s^d^ sum and the other sons one fifth apeece and S^d^ Widdow to have y^e^ use and benifit of s^d^ lands till s^d^ sons Respectively attaine to y^e^ age aforesaid, and at y^e^ Decease of S^d^ widdow the third of land assigned to her to be parted among the four Sons in manner aforesaid."

HOPKINS-SMITH NOTES

Under the general title of "Hopkins-Smith Notes" we shall print, from time to time, abstracts from the numerous notes made by the Editor, from original documents and records, relating to the descendants of Mary[3] Hopkins (Gyles[2], Stephen[1]). She married Samuel Smith of Eastham, 3 January, 1665, and had seven children recorded at Eastham : a son (died unnamed), Samuel, Mary, Joseph, John, Grace and Rebecca.* Joseph, Grace and Rebecca died without issue, before their parents. Samuel died before his parents, but left two sons. John and Mary, who had married Daniel Hamilton, survived their parents, and both left issue.

In this article we give abstracts of all the records, in the Barnstable County, Mass., Registry of Probate, relating to the settlement of the estates of Samuel Smith, Jr., in 1692 ; of Samuel Smith, Sr., in 1697 ; and of Mary (Hopkins) Smith, in 1700. The proper references are given with each abstract.

WILLIAM WHITE OF DARTMOUTH NOT A SON OF SAMUEL[3] WHITE OF ROCHESTER

By George Ernest Bowman

Samuel[3] White (Resolved[2], William[1]) of Rochester, Mass., had a son William[4], born 6 June, 1690. [See "White Notes," page 97 of this issue.] It has been claimed that this William[4] settled in Dartmouth, Mass., and married Elizabeth the daughter of George and Hannah (Hathaway *) Cadman, but those who have pressed this claim have not presented any evidence in its support. They have merely asserted that William[4] (Samuel[3]), of Rochester, and William of Dartmouth were identical.

The date of the marriage of William White and Elizabeth Cadman has not been found, but their daughter Sarah was married in 1726. If Sarah's father was the William[4] (Samuel[3]) born in 1690, both father and daughter must have married very young. It was not impossible for a daughter to marry when her father was only thirty-six years old, but such cases are so unusual that they should not be accepted without ample contemporary evidence. In the present case such evidence has not been produced. On the contrary, convincing evidence that the two Williams were not identical has been known to me since the summer of 1901, when I made the transcript, printed in our third volume, of the vital records scattered through the earliest volume of the Dartmouth town records. It was necessary to examine every page of the original with the greatest care, so that none of the vital records should be overlooked. While making this examination I took notes also of all miscellaneous records which seemed to be connected with the Mayflower families. One item noted was the record, on page 37 of the original, of the election, on 5 July, 1705, of William White as a petit juror. Since William White of Dartmouth was elected juror in 1705, he must have been, on that date, at least twenty-one years of age, and must have been, at that time, a legal resident of the town. But William[4] White (Samuel[3]) of Rochester, if living, was only one month more than fifteen years old, in July, 1705, and was then a resident of Rochester, where his mother was still living, although his father may have died before that date. It is evident, therefore, that William White of Dartmouth and William[4] White (Samuel[3]) of Rochester were not identical.

Since I first noted this election of William White of Dartmouth, in 1705, I have examined, and made abstracts of, hundreds of probate, land and town records, in an effort to learn his origin, and to determine what became of William[4] White (Samuel[3]) of Rochester, but have not yet been able to solve either problem, and have not even been able to prove that William[4] of Rochester was alive in 1705. The only record of William[4] (Samuel[3]) yet found is that of his birth.

DUXBURY, MASS., VITAL RECORDS

TRANSCRIBED BY THE EDITOR

IN our last issue we completed the transcript of the vital records in the earliest volume of the Duxbury town records. We now begin the vital records in the volume labeled "Proprietors of the Second Division 1712–1754 Births by Families." In the back of this book are thirty-seven pages containing birth, marriage and death records, from 1699 to 1771. This part of the book is paged separately, the first vital record being on page three.

It is evident that this volume of records was unknown to Justin Winsor, when he wrote his History of the Town of Duxbury, published in 1849, and as subsequent writers seem to have relied on his work, and failed to examine the original records for themselves, the records now presented will supply important additions and corrections for the genealogies of the Brewster, Cushman, Delano, Peterson, Samson, Simmons, Soule, Southworth, Weston and other families.

[Decree on Real Estate]

[2 : 29] Plimouth ss: The sixt day of July Anno[q] : Dom: 1703 in the second year of the Reign of our Soveraign Lady Anne by the grace of God of England Scotland ffrance & Ireland Queen Defender of the faith &c:

Whereas Abraham Sampson & Lorah his wife Isaac Sampson & Lidia his wife Caleb Sampson & Mercy his wife & Benjamin Soule and Sarah his wife sons in law & daughters of M[r] Alexander Standish late of Duxborough Deceased by their Libell or Petition bearing date febr: to 1702 unto Nathaniel Thomas Esq[r] Judge of the Probate of wills Granting letters of Administration & Distributing the Estates of Intestates in the County of Plimouth have set fourth & Proponded as followeth to wit

That their said father M[r] Alexander Standish in his old age was much decayed in his Understanding & memory as by his last [will] which he writt with his own hand is manifest & therefore not being of such a disposing memory as to dispose of his Estate with reason & understanding (which the law calls Sane Memori) & we the subscribers being thereby deprived of our Reasonable parts of his Estate . we Entered a Cavat with Wm Bradford Esq[r] then Judge of the said Probation Court & gave in our Reasons against the Probate of the same which we humbly conceive Were sufficient to have staved the Probate thereof & to have moved the said Judge to have declared the said Pretended Will to be null & void as by the said Cavat Reference thereunto being had may more fully & at large appear Notwithstanding which the said Judge Proceeded to Prove & approve the said will to our great grievance. And we further shew that about seven or Eight acres of our said fathers meadow or marsh land lying near Eagles nest in Duxborough aforesa[d] is wholly left undisposed of not being mentioned nor any ways bequeathed by said will

We therefore Propound & Pray that by your Authority you will Cause our reasonable Proportions or parts of our said fathers Estate to be distributed to us out of the said Meadow as we humbly conceive by the law of this Province we ought to have &c:

And thereupon Miles Standish the Eldest son of the sa[d] Alexander & the Executor Named in the sa[d] Will was Cited to appear before the sa[d] Judge at the Court house in Plimouth on fryday the fift of March following to shew Cause if any he had why the Proposition & Petition afores[d] should not be granted . who upon the said day appeared & Pleaded as followeth viz : My Reasons wherefore the said Meadows may not be so distributed are breifly as followeth 1 because the same by the last Will & Testament of s[d] deceased are devised & bequeathed unto me as by said Will may appear viz: in that the Testator saith that he gives me all his upland & Meadow in Duxborrough so that if the said meadow be within the bounds and limits of Duxborrough they are bequeathed unto me tho not within those other boundarys Mentioned for his upland or farme. 2 The said Testator in his said Will declareth me to be his Eldest son and Proper heir which vertually saith the Inheritance is mine for an heir & an Inheritance are Relatives & by his Declaring me to be heir he Intitles me to all his lands not otherwise disposed of by his Will;

To which Reasons the Plaintiffs Replyed:

To his first we say that his father gave him all his upland and meadows in Duxborrough from a Stump &c : And so bounds all the lands & meadows Distinctly that was given unto him & therefore he cannot have [p. 30] Have any more upland & meadow then by the will is bounded out unto him & there is other lands Given by the said Will after the land given to miles Standish the which Plainly shews the mind of the deceased was that the said Miles should not have all the lands in said Duxborrough.

To his 2[d] We Answer That whereas the deceased Called his Eldest son proper heir he also tells him what he should do as such & not that he should have any of his lands as heir & therefore what lands or meadows of the deceased is left unwilled & undisposed of ought to be settled & Devided according to the law of this Province in such Cases made and Provided

Afterwards the s[d] Miles put in a Paper containing his 3[d] reason as followeth

3 The Petitioners above s[d] ought not to have said Meadow set out to them alone because if not devised nor pased by the Will the widdow hath her Dower in the same & my self a Double Portion & Every other Child of the deceased an Equall Interest in the same unless it shall appear that some of them have been Advanced by or with the Estate of the Deceased in his life time which none but the Petitioners have been for what any of the children have or Claime by vertue of the said will is not within the meaning of the law for Scripture as Well as Reason tells us that a Will is of no force till the Testator be dead so that what any of us have by a will fell to us after his death & not in his lifetime & in case a Devision will spoyle the whole that is to be devided the whole is to be assigned unto me paying Each Interrested in the same their Proportions as vallued by freeholders upon oath.

And the Case afores[d] being put under consideration untill the 18[th] of June following at which day Samuel Deleno appeared before the s[d] Judge in behalf of himself & Elizabeth his wife another of the Daughters of the said Alexander Standish & made Claime to have a part or Reasonable Portion of the said meadow or the vallue thereof assigned to them they haveing had nothing of their said fathers Estate in his life time.

And now Considering the severall Pleas & allegations as well on the one part as the other here it may be observed that the s[d] Miles Standish by his first Reason Claimes the said Meadow by will & by his 2[d] Reason Claimes it as sole heir & by his third Reason to have it devided to all the Children & himself a Duble portion & least such a devision should spoile the whole to have it assigned to himself paying each Interrested their portions &c:

That the said Miles by his 2[d] Reason Contradicts or waves his first & by his 3[d] Reason contradicts or waves both his former Reasons.

That upon Consideration had of the Will afores[d] it is manifest the s[d] Meadow is not Contained in the device made to the said miles.

That he cannot have it as sole heir by the law of this Province there being severall other brothers & sisters.

That as to the deviding the said meadow to all the Children it is Considered That the farme given to the said Miles is worth 3 or four hundred pounds To his 2[d] son he gave one hundred pounds & more To his 2 sons by his 2[d] wife & widdow one hundred pounds apeice in lands besids other gifts & to his Daughter which he had by s[d] 2[d] wife a very Considerable Portion And it is not Materiall whether the same were given by will or otherwise seeing they are advanced . by it out of their fathers Estate & where there is the like Reason there is the like law That it doth not appear that the said five Daughters he had by his first [p. 31] ffirst wife that are now the Petitioners have been advanced by any Portions out of their fathers Estate in his life time.

That whereas the said Miles hath moved to have the said Meadow assigned to him paying Each Interrested in the same their Proportion as vallued by ffreholders upon oath accordingly the s[d] meadow having been vewed by sufficient ffreholders be dead so that what any of us have by a will fell to us after his death & not in his lifetime & in case a Devision will spoyle the whole that is to be devided the whole is to be assigned unto me paying Each Interested in the same their Proportions as valued by freeholders upon oath.

And the Case aforesd being put under consideration untill the 18th of June following at which day Samuel Deleno appeared before the sd Judge in behalf of himself & Elizabeth his wife another of the Daughters of the said Alexander Standish & made Claime to have a part or Reasonable Portion of the said meadow or the value thereof assigned to them they having had nothing of their said fathers Estate in his life time.

And now Considering the several Pleas & allegations as well on the one part as the other here it may be observed that the sd Miles Standish by his first Reason Claimes the said Meadow by will & by his 2d Reason Claimes it as sole heir & by his third Reason to have it devided to all the Children & himself a Double portion & least such a devision should spoile the whole to have it assigned to himself paying each Interested their portions &c

That the said Miles by his 2d Reason Contradicts or waves his first & by his 3d Reason contradicts or waves both his former Reasons.

That upon Consideration had of the Will aforesd it is manifest the sd Meadow is not Contained in the devise made to the said miles.

That he cannot have it as sole heir by the law of this Province there being severall other brothers & sisters.

That as to the devising the said meadow to all the Children
it is Considered That the Farme given to the said Miles is worth 3 or four hundred pounds To his 2d son he gave one hundred pounds & more To his 2 sons by his 2d wife & widdow one hundred pounds apeice in lands besids other gifts & to his Daughter which he had by sd 2d wife a very Considerable Portion And it is not Materiall whether the same were given by will or otherwise seeing they are advanced . by it out of their fathers Estate & where there is the like Reason there is the like law That it doth not appear that the said five Daughters he had by his first [p. 31] first wife that are now the Petitioners have been advanced by any Portions out of their fathers Estate in his life time.

That whereas the said Miles hath moved to have the said
Meadow assigned to him paying Each Interested in the same their Proportion as valued by freeholders upon oath accordingly the sd meadow having been vewed by sufficient freeholders upon oath appointed thereto by the s[d] Judge; That is to say all the said seven or Eight acres of meadow lying near Eagles nest in Duxborrough in three parcells being adjacent to the meadow of M[r] William Brewster partly & partly to the Meadow of Samuel Bartlett they Prized the same at sixty five pounds, It is therefore Considered & hereby Determined by the said Judge (saving to the Widdow her Dower therein) That the the s[d] Miles Standish shall have the said meadow to him his heirs & assignes Provided allways that he the s[d] Miles Standish his Executors or administrators shall & do within twelve moneths after the date hereof pay to his said five sisters Lorah Samson Lidia Samson Mercy Samson Sarah Soule & Elizabeth Dillono the sum of fifty pounds in or as money That is to say To Each of them the sum of ten pounds & for the true payment of the same he the said Miles Standish shall within ten days after the date hereof make seale & deliver unto Each of his said sisters a sufficient bond of twenty pounds with Condition for the true payment of Ten pounds in specia & within the time afores[d]; The which if he shall Refuse or neglect to do That then all the s[d] Meadow lying in three parcells as afores[d] (saveing to the widdow afores[d] her dower therein dureing her life) shall belong to be & appertain unto the s[d] Lorah Lidia mercy Sarah & Elizabeth To have & to hold to them & to their severall & Respective heirs & assignes for ever To be Equally devided to & amongst them from & after the Expiration of the said ten days.

Memorandum That on the sixt day of July 1703 The above & before written Instrument was declared & read to the said Miles Standish.

Memorandum That on the thirteenth day of July 1703 the abovesaid Miles Standish Came before the said Judge & made his appeal from the sentence afores[d] unto the Governour & Councill & gave security to prosecute his appeal with Effect as the law Requires.

SERGEANT WILLIAM HARLOW OF PLYMOUTH AND WILLIAM HARLOW OF SANDWICH WERE NOT THE SAME PERSON

By George Ernest Bowman

In an article on "The Harlow Family," printed in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, in 1860 [Vol. XIV, pp. 227–233] it is stated that Sergeant William Harlow of Plymouth was born about 1624; was of Sandwich in March, 1637; was granted land at Plymouth in 1638; was fined in 1638 for having hogs unringed; and died 26 August, 1691, aged sixty-seven years. Of these five statements but one, the first, is correct.

The death of Sergeant William Harlow is entered on the Plymouth town and church records as follows:

"Serjant William Harlow deceased Agust 25th 1691 being entered into the 67 yeare of his Age" [Town Records, I: 202.]

"Serjeant william Harlow, August, 25: in his 67th yeare neere finished." [Church Records, Part IV, page 22, in a list of deaths in the year 1691.]

The day of the month is plainly written "25" in both of these entries, but all previous writers seem to have accepted the "Register" article without investigating the original records; they have also accepted in the same way the statement that Sergeant William Harlow of Plymouth and William Harlow of Sandwich were the same person, overlooking the plainly contradictory evidence contained in the five statements mentioned.

The two records of Sergeant William Harlow's death prove that he was born after 25 August, 1624; but the following records prove that William Harlow of Sandwich was born some years before that date.

The original records of Plymouth Colony contain the following references to William Harlow of Sandwich.

On 21 March, 1637, Thomas Hampton of Sandwich made his will, which contains the following clause: "I give to Thomas Tupper Peter Gaunt Richard Kirby and Thomas Shellingworth the residue of my estate to be devided amongst them by equall porcons excepting xx^{s} in the hands of Willm Harlowe and a couple of piggs devideable betweene him and my selfe w^{ch} I likewise bequeath unto him" William Harlow also witnessed the will and testified when it was presented for probate, 4 September, 1638. [Ante, III : 74, 75.]

The first volume of the Court Orders [page 169 of the original] under date of 4 September, 1638, also records the fact that "William Harlow was Deposed to the last Will & Testament of Thomas Hampton of Sandwich Deceased."

On 4 December, 1638, at a General Court, among those presented "for keeping swine unringed" we find "W^{m} Harlow 3 hoggs" The record does not state whether a fine was imposed. [Court Orders, I : 181.]

On 5 March, 1638/9, at a General Court, among "The names of such as are pposed to take up their freedom the next Court" we find "Willm Harlow" [Court Orders, I : 193.] No record of his admission as a freeman has been found, but the next record proves that he was admitted before 16 April, 1640.

On 16 April, 1640, at a general meeting of the "Townes men of Sandwich", concerning the division of meadow lands among them, William Harlow received four acres. [Court Orders, I : 232.]

It has been shown that Sergeant William Harlow of Plymouth was born after 25 August, 1624. He was, therefore, less than fourteen years old when Thomas Hampton's will was made, but the terms of the will prove that the William Harlow therein mentioned was not a young boy. A boy of fifteen, or less, would not have been held responsible "for keeping swine unringed", and the William Harlow of 4 December, 1638, must have been of age. The William Harlow who, on 5 March, 1638/9, wished to become a freeman must have been at least twenty-one years of age, and probably was somewhat older, since it was unusual, at that time, to admit a man as soon as he was of age. And a boy of less than sixteen could not have been one of the "Townes men of Sandwich" in 1640. It has, therefore, been proved that William Harlow of Sandwich was not Sergeant William Harlow of Plymouth. No relationship between the two men has been discovered.

Sergeant William Harlow of Plymouth had three wives and fourteen children. His first wife was Rebecca Bartlett[3], daughter of Robert Bartlett and Mary[2] Warren, and granddaughter of Richard[1] Warren of the Mayflower. William Harlow and Rebecca Bartlett were married at Plymouth, 20 December, 1649,* and had four children born at Plymouth: William, born 5 October, 1650, died 26 October, 1650; Samuel, born 27 January, 1652; Rebecca, born 12 June, 1655; William, born 2 June, 1657. The date of Rebecca (Bartlett) Harlow's death is unknown, but it must have been between 2 June, 1657, the birth of her last child, and 15 July, 1658, when her husband married again.

William Harlow married, second, Mary Faunce, at Plymouth, on 15 July, 1658, and their children, born at Plymouth, were: Mary, born 19 May, 1659; Repentance, born 22 November, 1660; John, born 19 October, 1662, and died without issue, before 18 September, 1691; Nathaniel, born 30 September, 1664. Mary (Faunce) Harlow died at Plymouth 4 October, 1664.

William Harlow married, third, on 25 January, 1665, Mary Shelley. Their children, all born at Plymouth, were: Hannah, born 28 October, 1666,† and died, unmarried, at Plymouth, 27 June, 1689‡; Bathshua, born 21 April, 1667†; Joanna, born 24 March, 1669; Mehitable, born 4 October, 1672; Judith, born 2 August, 1676; Benjamin, whose birth is not recorded, but is proved by the settlement of his father's estate.

[The Settlement of William Harlow's Estate]

[From original bond] "We Mary Harlow Relict widow of William Harlow Late of Plimouth Deceased Lieut Ephraim morton and Isaac Cushman all of Plimouth .... *The births, marriages and deaths are all from the original volume of Marriages, Births and Burials, with one exception noted.

†These two dates are given as they appear on the original records. The parents were married 25 January, 1665, old style, which would be 1666 in new style, therefore Hannah was born nine months after the marriage, and Bathshua's birth undoubtedly took place in 1668, instead of 1667 as recorded.

The only mention of real estate is as follows: "in Housing upland and meadow lands at Plimouth and Middleborough." £110. "New Cask and Copers Stuff not wrought up" valued at £3, 13s., and "Coopers tooles" worth £2, 6s., are mentioned. The estate owed Isaac Cushman 15s.

BAXTER NOTES

By George Ernest Bowman

Under the general title of "Baxter Notes" we shall print, from time to time, abstracts from the numerous notes made by the Editor, from original records and documents, relating to the descendants of Thomas Baxter, Sr., of Yarmouth, who married Temperance (Gorham) Sturgis, the widow of Edward Sturgis, Jr., and daughter of Capt. John and Desire (Howland) Gorham.

In this issue we give complete abstracts of all records relating to the will of Thomas Baxter, Sr., and to the settlement of the estate of Temperance (Gorham) (Sturgis) Baxter, found on the Barnstable County Probate Records.

EATON NOTES

By George Ernest Bowman

Under the general title of "Eaton Notes" we shall print, from time to time, abstracts from the numerous notes made by the Editor, from original records and documents, relating to the descendants of Francis[1] Eaton of the Mayflower.

In this issue we give abstracts of all the probate records, and documents in the probate files, relating to the estates of William[3] Eaton (Benjamin[2], Francis[1]) and of Samuel[3] (Samuel[2], Francis[1]). The proper reference is given with each abstract.

* "September" was first written, but, apparently, an attempt was made to change it to "October."

† "Doggett" has been added, after "Lydia," in a modern hand.

‡ This entry is in a modern hand.

§ "Mary" was first written. It was changed to "hanah" by the same hand, apparently. Above, in a modern hand, has been added "Hannah Barnes dau of Jonathan Barnes." The settlement of the estate of John Barnes proves that it was his daughter Hannah who married Lemuel Drew, and was the mother of these children. See also the note on Jonathan's daughter Hannah, page 256.

[William[3] Eaton's Will]

Attest Saml Sprague Clerk"

The probate files contain no original documents relating to this estate.

[Samuel[3] Eaton's Estate]

[Plymouth Co. Prob. Rcds., 4 : 391] On 6 April, 1724, Barnabas Eaton of Middleborough was appointed administrator on the estate of "your Father Samuel Eaton late of middleborough . . . . Decd"

[From original bond] The original bond of Barnabas Eaton as administrator, with Jacob Tomson and Ephraim Wood as sureties, all three being of Middleborough, was dated 6 April, 1724. The witnesses were Nathaniel Thomas and Nathaniel Southworth.

[From original warrant] On 6 April, 1724, "Jacob Tompson Esqr mr Ephraim Wood and mr Samuell Barrow all of middleborough" were appointed appraisers of all the real and personal estate "that Samuell Eaton of middleborough . . . . dyed seised of lying in the sd County of Plimoth" "Jacob Tompson Esqr and mr Ephraim Wood" were sworn the same day, and Samuel Barrows was sworn on 20 April, 1724.

[From original inventory] On 23 April, 1724, "Jacob Tomson Samuel barrows Ephraim wood" took an inventory "of the Estate both Real and personal which Samuel Eaton late of middleleborough aforesaid dyed seized of : lying within said

IN this issue we give a complete abstract of the appointment of John Smith[4], in 1716, as guardian of his minor son Dean, in connection with the settlement of an estate, also of all records relating to the settlement of the estate of John Smith[4] of Chatham, son of Samuel and Mary[3] (Hopkins) Smith, found on the Barnstable County Probate Records. John Smith married, 14 May, 1694, at Eastham, Bethiah Snow[4] (Stephen[3], Constance[2] Hopkins, Stephen[1]), born at Eastham, 1 July, 1672, his second cousin, and they had two sons recorded at Eastham: James, born 13 February, 1694/5, died 27 May, 1696; Samuel, born 25 May, 1696. [Ante, 8 : 15, 243.]

The births of the other eight children have not been found on the records, but, by means of the various guardianship records here printed, we can determine the order of the births, and the approximate dates for all but Mercy. In the final settlement the sons are all named in the order of their ages, and the daughters in this order: Mercy, Mary, Bethiah. This would seem to indicate that Mercy was the oldest, and it is probable that she was born between Dean and Mary. There seems to be no other possible place for Mercy.

The children of John and Bethiah were: James, born 13 February, 1694/5, died 27 May, 1696; Samuel, born 25 May, 1696;

* See illustration facing page 193.

Dean, born about 1698; Mercy, probably born between 1698 and 1702; Mary, born about 1702; John, born about 1703; Stephen, born about 1706; Bethiah, born about 1708; David, born about 1711; Seth, born about 1713.

NOTES

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS. We regret to say that the number of letters received by the Editor, asking for information about the Mayflower Pilgrims and their descendants, or about other Plymouth Colony families, is so large that it is impossible for one person to reply to all of them.

For fifteen years the Editor has been compiling, from original sources, the genealogies of all the Mayflower families, including all their descendants in both male and female lines, and the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants already owns a very large collection of material, only a small part of which has ever been put into print. The cost of making this collection, which is constantly increasing in size and in genealogical and historical value, has been heavy, and the Society cannot still further increase its expenses by employing an assistant to supply this information free of charge. It has, therefore, become necessary for the Editor to confine his attention to those who are willing to assist the Society in its important work by paying a fee for consultation. All such fees are used solely in extending the Society's research work.

JOHN RIDER'S WIFE HANNAH IDENTIFIED. Hannah, the first wife of John Rider[4] (Sarah Bartlett[3], Mary[2] Warren, Richard[1]), was the daughter of Jonathan and Elizabeth Barnes of Plymouth. The will of Jonathan Barnes, dated 27 June, 1714, and proved 24 December, 1714, mentions "the three Childrean of my Daughter Hannah Dec[d] viz Mercy, Samuel, and Ebenezer Rider." By reference to the record, on page 223 of this issue, of the births of John Rider's children, by his wives Hannah and Mary, it will be seen that the wife Hannah left three children, Mercy, Samuel and Ebenezer. Hannah (Barnes) Rider died on 11 January, 1703. [Plymouth Town Records, I: 204] John Rider[4] died about 1735 and these three children are mentioned in the settlement of his estate, Mercy being then the wife of William Harlow[5] (Samuel[4], Rebecca Bartlett[3], Mary[2] Warren, Richard[1]).

SMALL POX CEMETERY, EAST MIDDLEBOROUGH. In October, 1909, Mr. John W. Willard copied and presented to this Society all inscriptions in the Small Pox Cemetery, at the corner of Brook and Soule Streets, East Middleborough, Mass. The following records were found.

Rev. Silvanus Conant, Pastor of the First Church in Middleborough, died of small-pox, 8 December, 1777, in his 58th year and in the 33d year of his ministry. [See also page 198 of this issue.]

Hannah, widow of John Cox, died of small-pox, 18 December, 1777, in her 78th year.

Lieut. Zechariah Eddy, died of small-pox, 6 December, 1777, in his 65th year. "A husband kind . . . . a parent dear" "Also In Memory of Mr Zechariah Son of Lieu[t] Zechariah & M[rs] Mercy Eddy He Died at Mount Independance in defense of his Country June y[e] 9[th] 1777" in his 26th year.

Sarah, wife of Thomas Redding, died of small-pox, 14 December, 1777, in her 50th year.
